

WILLIAM H. PAGE HEADS NEW YORK A. C. TICKET

To Be President of Club—A Lawyer Many Years in This City.

GOVERNORS ALL NEW MEN

Not One Renominated—Halpin on Board; Pilgrim New Captain.

As a result of nine meetings the last of which was held yesterday afternoon the nominating committee of the New York A. C. posted on the bulletin board of the club the regular ticket for officers of the organization which will be voted on by the members on January 14. The ticket is headed by William H. Page, a prominent corporation lawyer, for president, and members of the club were enthusiastic last night over the selections. As one man who has been counted an insurgent said: "This ticket does away with factions. Everyone seems satisfied and there is practically no prospect for an opposition ticket."

The ticket follows: President, William H. Page; Vice-president, Dr. James N. West; Treasurer, Marko F. Faine; Secretary, Frederick H. Kortmeyer; Captain, Paul H. Pilgrim. Board of governors, to serve two years: William H. Sealch, Charles L. Leonard, Matthew P. Halpin, Charles H. Pond, Dr. J. P. C. O'Connor, John A. Topping, Robert Appleton, Douglas Graham Smyth.

Perhaps the most remarkable feature of the nominations is that there has been a clean sweep so far as the members of the board of governors is concerned. Not a single man who served on the old board has been named on the present ticket, but each of the new members have all the departments of the club well represented by conservative members.

So far as the officers go it is understood that a renomination was offered the retiring president, William H. Page, but as he had already declared his intention not to run again the offer must be considered as a complimentary one on the part of the members. The treasurer, Marko F. Faine, and secretary, Frederick H. Kortmeyer, are also being renominated, and the captain, Paul H. Pilgrim, has been elevated to the board of governors, where it is the plan to have him serve as the chairman of the athletic committee.

William H. Page, the nominee for president, has practiced law for more than twenty-five years in New York city and at the present time is counsel for the Fifth Avenue Stage Lines, the Intercontinental Rubber Company and the Chicago Mines Corporation. He attained prominence in 1904 when he was named to a committee appointed by Secretary Lamont to investigate the business methods of the War Department. The report of the committee was highly commensurate and in consequence has been continued without substantial change. Mr. Page also took a leading part with Edward Lauterbach, acting for the Third Avenue Company, in the fight against the Metropolitan system. Other legal battles in which he was engaged were in connection with the Second Air Line, the New York City and the New York City and the New York City.

Mr. Page is chairman of the law committee of the Automobile Club of America. He is also a member of the Harvard, National Democratic, Lawyers and Architects clubs. At his summer home at Bernardsville, N. J., Mr. Page has taken a prominent part in the organization and management of the Fair Hills Athletic and Bernardsville Swimming clubs.

While at Harvard Mr. Page qualified as an athlete by winning the light and middleweight boxing championships of the university in 1904 and 1905 and as one of the Harvard varsity team in the 100 and 200 meter runs at Athens in 1906. He has been handicapper of the club for some years and was the assistant manager of the Olympic team that made such a great showing at the recent meet in Sweden. The treasurer, Marko F. Faine, has held that office since 1907, and Fred R. Kortmeyer is serving his third term as secretary.

William H. Sealch may be considered a yachting member of the board, as he is a member of the Larchmont Yacht Club. He has been a member of the N. Y. A. C. since 1882 and is identified with many large business concerns, including the Sealch Realty Company, of which he is president.

In addition to being captain of the New York A. C. for three years, Matthew P. Halpin has proved his ability to control athletics by his work as manager of the last three American Olympic teams, ranging from 1904 to the present year. Charles H. Pond is well qualified to look after the Travers Island interests of the club. He is a resident of Pelham Manor and holds a place in the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co. He has been a member of the club for many years.

Dr. J. P. C. O'Connor is well known in the fencing world, and in 1889 won the national foil championship. He became a member of the Columbia faculty in 1888 and was a governor of the New York A. C. from 1893 to 1898. There is another recruit to the rowing division in Robert Appleton, president of the publishing house of that name and another in Douglas Graham Smyth, who first joined the club as a junior member in 1887. He achieved fame as a champion of the victorious Olympic team and for twenty years acted for club crews in their races. In addition he was for five years on the hockey team and is a clever gymnast.

A. Topping is chairman of the board of directors of the Republic Iron and Steel Company and director in many other business enterprises. Charles L. Leonard is the owner of the Hotel Concord in New York city and though not an old member of the club has been an active worker.

So far as could be learned last night there will be no opposition, but should any develop the names will have to be posted by next Saturday.

Riley Wants to Stay College Team

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—Eddie Riley, who has written Manager Doolin of the Phillies for permission to refrain from rejoining next season until June, Riley explained he is taking a course in chemistry at the University of Virginia and wishes to finish his studies before rejoining the team to keep in shape by work in the University gymnasium.

Say Hefflinger Will Be Coach.

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 30.—It was said tonight that at the meeting of Yale's former football captains and coaches at the Yale Club in New York next Saturday night Hefflinger will be proposed for permanent football coach. Walter Camp will be named as advisory coach.

PAUL HUNTER IS BEATEN.

Crocker's Long Putt on Home Green
Gives Him Victory Over Chicagoans.

PINKNEY, Dec. 29.—The defeat of Paul M. Hunter of Midlothian by George H. Crocker of the Brookline Country Club was the feature of this afternoon's semi-final round in the ninth annual holiday week golf tournament. Hunter advanced on a 2 and 1 win over Robert Gould Shaw of Brookline in the morning and Crocker won on the defeat of Walter J. Travis, who was suffering from lumbago.

Starting out in the afternoon, the Midlothian player took the first two holes, only to lose the third and fourth. Hunter was in the lead again on the fifth, and the sixth was halved, but Crocker won the seventh and eighth and saved the ninth by a halve, recovering well from a shot which overran the green and lodged between two trees in the rough beyond.

On the tenth Crocker increased the lead to 2 up, but the score was all even again on the twelfth green. The next five holes were halved, a brilliant recovery saving the seventeenth for Hunter. The players then went to the eighteenth green, where Hunter made a twelve foot putt for Crocker, which he negotiated. A six foot putt which Hunter failed to run down lost the match. The score was approximately 89 and 81 and it was stroke for stroke through the hole.

In the second division C. L. Watkins of Stratton and W. A. Barber, Jr., of Princeton survived and in the third W. C. Freeman of Englewood and J. H. Clapp of Chevy Chase.

To-morrow's final Crocker meets C. L. Becker of Woodland Club of Massachusetts.
